

"The Crucible" Movie Review

Jennifer Simmons

May 18, 2011

English III.

1. Two things that were portrayed differently in the movie is, the all went out to the water and in the play everything just happened in the court room and when they came to the house to get Elizabeth the boys ~~didn't~~ go see her.
2. The actors played their parts very well they all had the right attitudes and everything. I didn't like any actor better than any other. I feel the same about the actors in the movie and the play.
3. They played a drum beat as they hung the people. Two scenes where the music makes everything dramatic when they came to the house to get Elizabeth and as they were hanging the people.
4. The costumes were very old timey and as the movie went on they got dirtier and nastier.